

Roman Numerals

Roman numerals are used to designate the chords built on the scale.

I, IV, and V are major chords (large numerals)
 ii, iii, and vi are minor chords (small numerals)
 vii^o is a diminished chord (small numeral)

In the key of C, give the letter names for the following chords:

ii = _____

iii = _____

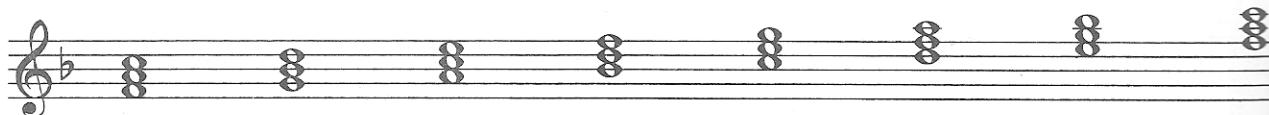

V = _____

IV = _____

I = _____

vi = _____

In the key of F, give the letter names for the following chords:

V = _____

ii = _____

iii = _____

IV = _____

I = _____

vi = _____